Case No. 3AN-05-6006 CI

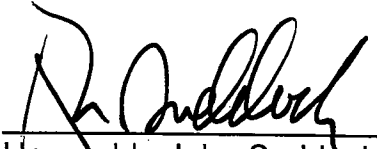

ORDER

This court having considered Defendant's Motion To Preclude Expert Testimony Of Pizzadili and any opposition thereto, and the court being fully apprised on the matter, and finding good cause therefor,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that Defendant's motion is GRANTED. The testimony of Plaintiff's expert, James Pizzadili, D.C., is speculation and not reliable. Further, he is not qualified to present expert testimony on the subject matters for which he has been offered. His testimony is excluded. * see next page

DATED at Anchorage, Alaska this 29th day of August 2008.

* except any testimony he offers about his chiropractic treatments

The gentleman steps well outside his discipline—he could as well be speaking as a forester, his undergraduate specialty. His research is unprofessional because unverifiable. His accusation of the building as the cause of any medical condition is lay opinion, kicking in foundation, that would not be helpful to the jury.

I certify that on 8-29-08
A copy of the above was mailed to each of the following at their addresses of record: Schlerf/Johnson
