

Training on Appellate Electronic Case Filing Comes to Alaska December 9, 2008

The Ninth Circuit's new Electronic Case Filing (ECF) system is up and running, and using it will become mandatory for most filers on January 2, 2009.

Come see a demo of the new system and ask questions about new Appellate Court Rules regarding electronic filing, opening cases, filing briefs and motions, and receiving court orders via email.

The training is designed for both attorneys and staff who will be involved in electronic filing in the Federal Appeals Court.

Dates: Tuesday, December 9, 2008

Times: 12 noon, 1:15 p.m., and 2:30 p.m.

In-Person Location:

12 noon, 1:15 p.m. and 2:30 p.m.

Anchorage U.S. District Court, 222 W. 7th Avenue, Courtroom 4

Video Conference Locations:

Juneau (12 noon) U.S. Federal Building, 709 West 9th St, 9th Floor Courtroom

Fairbanks (1:45 p.m.), U.S. Federal Building, 101 12th Ave, Courtroom 1

Details will also be posted on the Ninth Circuit's website, www.ca9.uscourts.gov.
Questions? Contact Ninth Circuit Staff Attorney Liz Noteware, (415) 355-7972.